DEDICATION

The Paragon staff and student body would like to dedicate this yearbook to Mrs. Taber in our appreciation for all her help and guidance, not only in the classroom and clinical areas, but also with the assistance in student organizations. Her enthusiasm and genuine interest in nursing and teaching has been made very apparent.

To mold future nurses has been Mrs. Taber's ambition and purpose. She's one who puts her heart and soul into her profession.

This is but a small token of our appreciation for showing us what the true meaning of "nursing" is all about. We hope that her work has not been in vain and know that we shall prosper from all the knowledge, instruction and experiences she has shared with each of us.

WANT TO PLAY MED-SURG?

Passed Freshman classes — Nooo problem! Med — Surg won't be that bad, will it? Go ahead 2 spaces.

Two weeks later, you wonder if your hand will ever be the same again from taking all those notes! Put a Band-Aid on your finger and advance 3.

Studied long and hard for your first test. You confidently answer the questions, but get your paper back and find out you passed by three points. Sadly, go ahead 1 space.

Get your first clinical assignment, and discover you already have drug cards made out! Advance 2.

On your second week of clinical, you get brave and volunteer to cath a female patient. You've maintained sterility and just about — whoops! — put it in the wrong — Oh well! With a red face, go back 3 spaces.

You get a B on your test and successfully give an IM all in one week! Go ahead 5.

Stay up all night to finish your NPSIP, get it back, and get an UNsatisfactory. You have to do the "#!" thing over again. Lose 2 turns.

You finally get to go to surgery. Congratulations! They took the patient to recovery instead of you! Advance 2.

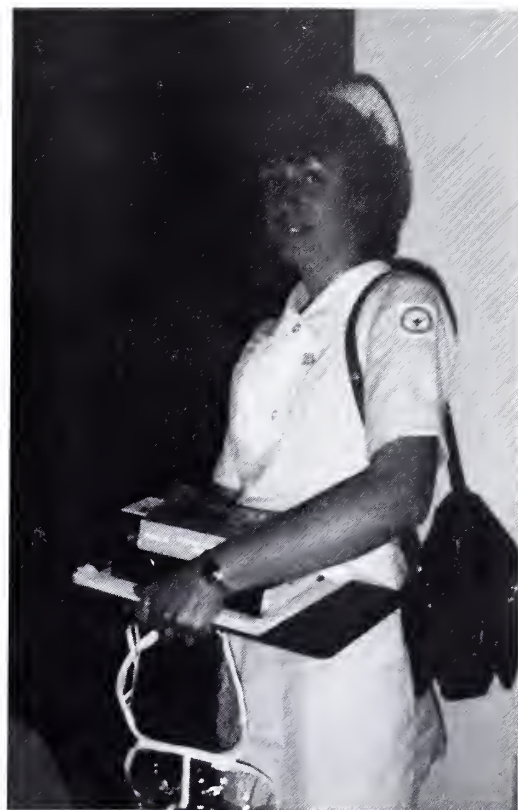

At the medicine cart, your instructor quizzes you about Lasix. You blurt out "All You've Ever Wanted To Know About Ducolax". When you figure out why she's looking at you like that, go back 1 space.

You got an A on your test!! Go ahead 3 spaces and take an extra turn.

Get your second NPSIP back, and the only section you have to redo is patho. Go back to the library, then go ahead 1 space.

You've started studying for the final. In fact, you studied so hard last night that you overslept this morning and missed lecture. Beg for someone's notes and go back 2.

You've handed in your final, and the instructor is starting the review. You're biting your lip, your palms are sweating. Cautiously, you count up your wrong answers. Can it be true? YES!! You passed MED-SURG!!!

PARAGON STAFF 83

Lori Wilson, Rhonda Fridmanski, Cathy McFarland, Joann Taylor, Janie Schmink, Donnalee Yoho, Janet Graham, Donna Strader, Janice Youhas, Becky Lamb, Cheryl Urban. Absent: Marsha Porter, Janeanne Haverkamp, Kim Kleinhans.

The production of a yearbook should be considered a Challenge — a challenge of a person's creativity, patience, & skill, even though there is a great deal of work involved & many times frustrations. It is an opportunity to recreate the past school year the way we saw it & made our way through it.

I wish to extend my thanks to those people who did take the time to contribute their talents to our yearbook, especially Rhonda Fridmanski for her cover design, Janet Graham, our Ad manager, Cheryl Urban for working out the Juniors pages, & Kim Kleinhans, for her input on the Freshman pages. Without these people, & all the photographers, the 1983 Paragon would not be in your hands today.

AN OVERALL GREAT TIME

Senior Class Wills

Janet Graham, will my inability to get to bed before 12 midnight or later, then turn around and get up at 5 AM for clinical to Marsha Porter

Cathy McFarland, the knowledge of standing beside little boys when giving them a bath to Tracey Rademaker

Sandy Hamilton, My "oscar" in Psych nursing to the Freshman and Juniors.

Joda Potts, The tremendous joy I have experienced through N400 to the Under classmen.

Rhonda Fridmanski, the ability to squeeze blood out of a turnip when collecting money to the next Senior class treasurer.

Donna Strader, the position of Student Government President to Margaret Sheehan.

Celester Brown, wills Mrs. Hart to the Freshman Class.

Cathy White, wills to Donna Basziz Mrs. Taber's lecture on birth control and hopes she pays better attention.

Angie Meloy, to Pam Monroe, my procrastination. I want her to be as relaxed as I've always been and then have a nervous breakdown the night before.

Donnalee Yoho, my ability to go to school for 3 years with an unknown address (even to me) to Lana Ozier.

Thomasina Withers, my best abilities (whatever they may be) to whomever wants them.

Janice Youhas, will my "Kissing Frogs" lecture and the ability to relieve tension on 174 to Pam Monroe.

Kari Kotcher, will my newly acquired self-confidence and assertiveness to Sharon Flick.

Dena Thurman, will the ability to remain calm on an unexpected event which takes place on clinical to Lori Dawless.

Diana Farris, my ability to live through psych and remain sane to anyone.

Jeanine Haverkamp, to stay awake while reading the book in Med-Surg to the underclassmen.

Joann Taylor, will the ability to get up at 5:15 AM to anyone.

Janie Schmink, the ability to take anatomy 136, 137 and Micro all in the same semester to Londa Holycross.

Carol Newman, my ability to travel R1 with one ticket per year to Tracey Rademaker.

Lori Wilson, I will the whole yearbook to Cheryl Urban.

Connie Schroeder, my ability to travel 70 miles round trip for 510 days to whomever has 510 days to spare.

DANVILLE, ILLINOIS 61832

(217) 443-5201

Dear Class of 1983:

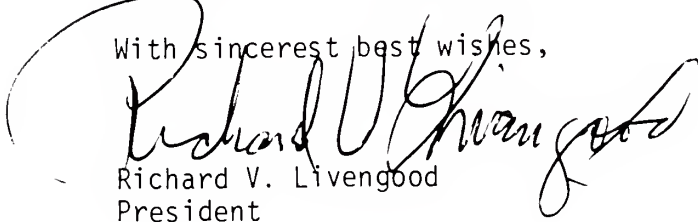

It is with a great deal of pride we recognize your successful completion of a vigorous and demanding schedule of studies and practice and are now at the threshold of a career as a Registered Nurse, one of mankind's most noble professions.

We know you will wear your gold Lakeview pin with pride, in the tradition of Lakeview excellence. No matter where your career may now take you, be assured that you may be justly proud of the professional skills that you have learned--you are a Lakeview nurse.

Congratulations to each of you from the Board of Directors, the entire staff of Lakeview Medical Center, and the School of Nursing. We extend a warm welcome to those of you who have chosen to remain and join the Lakeview staff. Those who have chosen other areas have our best wishes for much success and happiness. And there is always an open invitation to come back "home" any time, even if just for a visit.

Lakeview Medical Center is very proud of each of you. Good luck and God-speed.

With sincerest best wishes,

Richard V. Livengood
President

Congratulations To The Class Of 1983

The class of 1983 has gathered for their 10th reunion at O'Leary's Pub, their favorite night spot, and are coming in one at a time.

First we see Lori Wilson McMahon, still carrying a Paragon in her hand. In her Gremlin she never got far, so she ditched it and bought a new car.

Following Lori is her side kick Rhonda. As for nursing she is still fond of. She went into modeling to pursue a career, & now in Cosmopolitan we see her derriere.

Donna Strader is next, who followed her mother's footsteps and had a baby boom. She manages to find time to work in Intensive Care because she found a good babysitter so she could be there.

Oh look! Here comes the anesthetist of our class. Sandy worked hard, she didn't sit on her — gluteus maximus. Her office hours from 9-2, so she can watch Charlie Chan and Scoobie Doo.

Here's Thomasina who doesn't like to drive, stepping out of a cab with Tommy paying the tab. She's back in E.R. assessing away since she loves it so much, she's there to stay.

In walks Diane, so sweet her patients would not neglect, she's always displays a pleasant affect. Since schools been out, her social life has resumed, Knowledge & wisdom are not all that has been consumed.

600 Sager Avenue • Danville, Illinois 61832 • 217-442-6300

Here are Janie & Dick. After all these years, he can still flick her Bic. She's at LMC in Intermediate Care we see And she's as happy as can be.

In walks Kathy White with child again. Brandon was only the first of ten. In Peds she finally had to be a quitter since Randy got tired of being a babysitter.

Here comes Carol & her sweetie the MD. Together they run Paris Hospital OB. You no longer see her yellow camaro on the street, but as every cop knows she never got beat.

Who can forget Donnalee? According to her mother, she left with a yellow tote bag on her shoulder & took a loan. She hit the road, whereabouts unknown.

Angela is still at LMC, but not in Nursing. Shy's drawing more cartoons to make patients laugh. She visits OB from time to time & can shimmy to "Wipe Out" just to unwind.

Celester is finally catching up on her sleep & no longer weary. She drives a Cadillac, with a new diamond each day. She's fulfilled all her dreams, things have gone her way.

Dena — always so quiet & shy. She has kept her figure dancing burlesque on the side. She always maintains dignity on the floor, but who knows what goes on behind closed doors.

Cathy McFarland & Jay are still together. Tell us Cathy, is this one forever? She still catches glances with her blue eyes and blond hair, after 10 years that's quite rare.

Connie, a top student in our class. No one knows it takes her 2 hours to get ready for bed. Hardees wonders what happened to the little red car, we say like Martha, she's become a star.

Here comes Joda, 30 minutes late. What can we say, she got the right date. She's now an MD, with her own hours. Pt.'s don't know if she's in surgery or out picking flowers.

Kari, a passive one of the roster. We never knew we'd created a monster. Assertiveness now is no problem for Kari, just ask Stan, the man she finally married.

Janice, still at school for the VA. By 2020, she'll be paid back half way. With her Masters in 4 fields, she still loves to chat. With her favorite saying, "I'll drink to that"

Joann at LMC & Director of the floor, for carrying bedpans there are no more. Now she has ten kids with the ability to still care.

Here's Janeanne with ber hubby at her side. She works PM's at LMC, & appears to PG3.

Following Janeanne is her roomie Janet. She's turned all the men down, although rumor has it she's about to give in. Some lucky man is about to give in.

The phone is ringing at the side, It's Donnalee wanting a ride. Some say she's married a MD & has 5 sons. Just what she has wanted — money and fun.
